A&P advertisements are designed to help you do your food budgeting and food shopping. This means that they must be both informative and accurate. We not only list the correct price of each item; but we see to it that information regarding grades, sizes, brands and varieties is honest information in every way. And while it is hard to anticipate consumer demand, we try to stock adequate supplies of each advertised item. If at any time you should find our advertisements confusing or misleading, or if the food or service in our stores should ever fail to live up to what we say in our ads, we hope you will let us know. 'Spirit' Chosen As Sunday Text Subject

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" in all branches of The Mother Church The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from the Psalms, and reads, "O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me... Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?" Luke's Gospel records that as Jesus "went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day... there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. And Jesus... spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go. Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Jesus demonstrated the inability of corporeality, as well as the infinite ability of Spirit, thus helping erring human sense to flee from its own convictions and seek safety in divine Science." "Correct material belief by spiritual understanding, and Spirit will form you anew."

BAPTISTS SLATE GUEST SPEAKERS

Members of the congregation of the First Baptist Church this month will hear their Sunday sermons delivered by three different speakers, it was revealed this week by the Rev. Robert H. Colburn, assistant pastor of the church. Rev. Colburn stated that arrangements have been completed to bring the noteworthy speakers here during the month-long vacation of the Rev. and Mrs. C. Miles Northrup. The Rev. Britton Ross, who will occupy the pulpit for two successive Sunday mornings, has chosen "The Prophecy of the Open Window" for his sermon this Sunday. "The Prophecy of the Closed Window" will be his topic at the morning service on August 14. Rev. Colburn will deliver the sermons at the evening services on both occasions. Sermons for subsequent morning and evening services will be delivered by the Rev. Paul Litch, a member of the extension staff of the Bible School of Los Angeles, and the Rev. Don Cole, known as the college campus pastor, stated Rev. Colburn.

Former Pastor Returns as Guest Speaker

Torrance Christian Church's first resident minister, the Rev. Ben Lingenfelter, will return to the pulpit from which he conducted many services to deliver a sermon the last Sunday of this month. Rev. Lingenfelter, pastor here for a number of years will be the last of three ministers who will conduct the church's Sunday services this month while the Rev. Cecil England is on vacation. This Sunday's sermon, and that of Aug. 14, will be delivered by the Rev. Royal J. Dye, veteran of 30 years as a medical missionary in the Belgian Congo and more recently professor of missions at Chapman College. Dr. Owen Kellison, former pastor of the Wiltshire Christian Church and now provost of Chapman College, will deliver the sermon Aug. 21, reported Mrs. H. E. Foster, First Christian Church publicity chairman.
